TO HONOR

S. NORMAN BLACK

COLONEL, U.S. AIR FORCE

1916-2002

Colonel Black graduated from the University of Alabama in 1938. He served his country during World War II in the European Theater and subsequently as a career Air Force officer. He retired after 26 years of active military service and then for 12 years was the Vice President of Finance at the Chicago Art Institute. He received his Juris Doctor degree in 1979 from Western State University and then practiced law for 20 years in Orange County California. Colonel Black, in addition to being an avid golfer, had a wide variety of interests and was responsible for starting Little League Baseball in Japan. His wife and sweetheart of 55 years, Kathryn; son, Peter; and daughter, Joan and her children, Jon and Steven, survive him.
