

*Man's Flight
Through Life Is Sustained By The Power Of His Knowledge*

TO HONOR

RICHARD A. HILLIS

LIEUTENANT, US ARMY AIR FORCES

Lieutenant Dick Hillis was a B-17 navigator assigned to the Twelfth Air Force in North Africa. While flying a bombing raid on 4 February 1943, his aircraft was shot down by German fighters. He spent over 26 months in various German prisoner-of-war camps before being liberated on 29 April 1945. Following his wartime service, he held various executive positions with the Safeway Stores Corporation in California. Lieutenant Hillis died on 18 August 2002. He is survived by his wife, Jeanie, and three daughters.

By: Martha J. Hillis