

*Man's Flight
Through Life Is Sustained By The Power Of His Knowledge*

TO HONOR

THELMA (PEGGY) CULVER

Mrs. Thelma (Peggy) Culver had a highly respected teaching career in Colorado Springs. She taught junior high school for 23 years in District 20 and was honored in Colorado Who's Who of 1984, Outstanding Secondary Educators of America in 1975, and Colorado Teacher of the Year honorable mention in 1970. Born February 22, 1918 in Bedford, Virginia, she married Gordon P. Culver on November 9, 1940. She earned her bachelor's degree at Wisconsin State University and was awarded a master's degree in education by Colorado State University. Her passions in life were family, church, and teaching.

She Loved To Teach and Was a Superb Teacher

By: William and Betty Mahon