TO HONOR

CAROLYN WILBOURN CLARK

1915-2002

Carolyn Wilbourn Clark was a woman of beauty, wisdom, kindness, and grace. The daughter of a career Army officer, she was born at Fort Riley, Kansas, on November 20, 1915. She was married for over 65 years to Albert P. Clark, Lieutenant General, USAF, (Ret.), the sixth Superintendent of the US Air Force Academy. They were blessed with three children for whom Mrs. Clark cared devotedly and alone during World War II when her husband was a prisoner of war in Germany. She brought intelligence, loyalty, resiliency, and sparkle to her partnership with General Clark as he rose to be a senior commander. Undaunted by frequent moves and service in distant posts, she served as a role model and trusted counselor for countless military wives and was beloved by all who knew her.

She Loved Her Husband. She Loved Her Children, and She Loved Her Country
