

Service Names In The News

ARMY OFFICER AUTHORS 7TH BOOK

LCol Mark M. Boatner, III, Special Assistant to the CofS, 5th Infantry Division, Ft. Carson, Colo., has completed work on his seventh book. Entitled "The Encyclopedia of the American Revolution," the 1200-page work will be published by David McKay. Colonel Boatner's other books include the "Civil War Dictionary," "Military Customs and Traditions," and "Company Duties."

POLICE CHAPLAIN AIDS SERVICES

Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York has appointed the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph A. Dunne as Chaplain Delegate of the Military Vicariate for the Middle Atlantic States. Now Chaplain of the New York City Police Department, Monsignor Dunne served in both WWII and the Korean War. He holds the Silver Star.

MARINE OBSERVER PASSES 100 MISSION MARK

1st Lt Raymond S. Thompson, a Tactical Air Observer with the Marine Task Element in Vietnam, has completed more than 100 missions as a Combat Reconnaissance Photographer. The first Marine AO to fly more than 100 missions since the Korean War, he is slated for duty with the 12th Regiment of the 3d Marine Division on Okinawa.

USAFA WIDOW—Mrs. Valmore W. Bourque, widow of the first USAF Academy graduate to be killed in action against an enemy, receives the third, fourth and fifth OLC's to the Air Medal from Col Howard H. Cloud, Commander, Ent AFB, Colo. Captain Bourque was cited posthumously for duty in Vietnam from July to October of last year. ➡

NEW ARMY AND AIR FORCE POSTMAN

LCol Ronald J. Reynolds, USA, has been named Director of the 16-year-old Army and AF Postal Service. He was Chief of the Postal Service's Transportation Branch.

AIR FORCE OFFICER AT USMA CITED

Capt James R. Murphy, USAF, USMA '57, has been awarded the AF Commendation Medal for service as a Missile Operations Officer at Vandenberg AFB, Calif. A Rhodes Scholar, he is assigned to USMA as an Instructor in the Department of Social Sciences.

MASSACHUSETTS ADJUTANT GENERAL NAMED

MGen Joseph M. Ambrose has succeeded retired MGen Thomas J. Donnelly as AG of the Massachusetts National Guard. A Harvard Law School graduate, he is Counsel to the state's Youth Service Board.

SERVES ACADEMIC GROUPS ON TWO COMMITTEES

The USAF Academy's Registrar, Col Virgil J. O'Connor, has been named a member of the Committee on Examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board for '65, and is beginning a three-year term as V.P. of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers. He has been USAFA Registrar since '56.

Oldfield-Rhone P.R. Team Again

CHIEF M/Sgt Tom Rhone, widely known by civilian newsmen and military public information professionals, has retired at NORAD, Colorado Springs, and will work again with Col Barney Oldfield, USAF-Ret., now an official with Litton Industries.

Chief Master Sergeant Rhone, the ranking NCO in USAF public relations, was a member of Colonel Oldfield's staff in the NORAD information office, and returned there after a four-year tour as Chief, Press Liaison Office in Tokyo, for all U. S. Armed Forces.

With Litton, Chief Master Sergeant Rhone will be Director of Field Services for the Corporate Public Relations Office, with headquarters in Beverly Hills. He will report to Colonel Oldfield.

PL 810 Retirements

The Army has placed the following National Guard and Reserve officers on the retired list upon their attainment of age 60 and completion of at least 20 years creditable service as provided under Title III, PL 810, 80th Congress:

MAJOR GENERAL
Thurmond, James S
COLONEL
Barchard, Frank V	Obenour, William H
Coolick, John	Riebe, Norman J
Gilsch, Harry S	Thompson, E J
Moore, Frank L	Willford, Robert B
LIEUTENANT COLONEL
Carr, Rhea	Rotchford, Henry M
Fey, Homer D	Rulney, Max
Greenwald, Louis	Stach, James A
Hughes, Donald M	Van Guilder, T N
La Porte, Ray B	Warren, Leonard P
McCall, Joseph H	West, Baird F
Mulhern, John J	White, John E
Nicholson, James L	Winkler, Patrick J
Protheroe, Maurice R	Woodruff, Marion W
MAJOR
Beck, Theodore S	Ort, John P
Caterson, Rodman P	Reid, Frances E
Hunter, Polly L
CHIEF WARRANT OFFICER
Constantine, J T, NG	Hill, Eugene R