

TO HONOR

Dora Dougherty Strother Lt. Col, USAF, (Ret.)

Colonel Strother was a Women Airforce Service Pilot (WASP) in 1943-1944. She was commissioned in the USAF Reserve in 1949 and retired in 1977 as Commander of the 9823rd Air Reserve Squadron, Carswell AFB. As a civilian she was a Manager for Bell Aircraft. In 1961 she held the women's records for distance and altitude in rotor-craft flight.

WE LIVE IN THE WIND AND SAND WITH OUR EYES ON THE STARS

BY LT. COL. YVONNE C. PATEMAN, USAF (RET.)