

TO HONOR

ROBERT S. LAWSON

COLONEL, USAF (RETIRED)

1914 - 1997

Robert Lawson was born in New York City and attended New York University. He served in the 44th Bomb Group, 8th Air Force, U.S. Army Air Corps, during World War II. After the war he continued his service in the Air Force Reserve most effectively until retirement in 1972. In addition to his civilian career in merchandising, he devoted his time and talents for many years to supporting the Air Force Secretary and the Academy. He was a most effective liaison officer to assist young adults to qualify as cadets and he assisted the Air Force Office of Information in many public affairs projects for which he received numerous awards and recognition.
