

TO HONOR

DR. NEVILLE PRENTICE

While serving as a volunteer Archives Technician in the Special Collections Branch of the Air Force Academy Library from January 1995 to August 2000, Dr. Neville Prentice performed a myriad of duties that included outstanding service in support of activities undertaken by The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library. His work included assistance in the development and production of a series of historical exhibits which were sponsored by The Friends that reflect the history of the Air Force Academy and the evolution of American military air power. During his tenure, Dr. Prentice also produced two major catalogues to specialized collections of oral histories within the Special Collections Branch of the Academy Library.

Dr. Prentice's service with the Special Collections Branch of the Academy Library and The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library has been exemplary. His work has contributed immeasurably to the success of the educational mission of the Academy Library.

With Gratitude
