

TO HONOR

NANCY HILL SALISBURY

Nancy, born in Baltimore, Maryland, graduated from Friends School and Bard Avon School for Girls in that city. After joining the American Red Cross in 1943, she served in India, Australia, New Zealand and Egypt where she met her husband-to-be, Colonel Arthur G. Salisbury. She served as President and Honorary President of many Officers Wives Clubs overseas and in Washington, D.C. and Colorado Springs. Her promotion of, and planning for, Air Force Village was instrumental in its ultimate success. Nancy's indomitable spirit, ever-present smile and inextinguishable enthusiasm are remembered by her associates.
